Commercial Information Circular No. 25/56.

Subject :—Summary of important points brought out in India Government Trade Representatives abroad.

I. INDONESIA.

IMPORTS UNDER EXPORT INDUCEMENT CERTIFICATES (BUKTI-PENDORANG EKSPOR KNOWN AS B.P.E.)

Imports into Indonesia have now been divided into two categories :—

(i) Imports with normal foreign exchange. More than 90 per cent of import articles fall under this category. A note on this system of imports was sent last month for information of the Indian exporters.
(ii) Goods imported with BPE (Export Inducement Certificates).

2. Goods that can be imported with BPE belong to semi-essential, luxury and super-luxury goods, and articles the import of which are to be restricted in order to protect domestic industry.

3. The export commodities which are entitled to the inducement and the percentage of inducement, which has been revised, are attached to this note.

4. The import of goods with BPE as from September, 3rd 1956, has been divided, as already reported, into seven groups from Group III to Group IX with less severe import surcharge (T.P.I.) on the c.i.f. value of goods imported, than on imports with normal foreign exchange.

	T.P.I. (import levy)
Group III	25 per cent
Group IV	50 ,,
Group V	75 ,,
Group VI	100 ,,
Group VII	150 ,,
Group VIII	200 ,,
Group IX	300 ,,

5. A list of goods that can be imported with BPE under various groups, is enclosed. At present no goods are included under Group IV. It is very likely with periodical amendments and changes certain goods either from Group III or higher groups may be transferred to Group IV at a later stage.

6. The BPE regulations announced on 6th August 1956 have been changed effective 3rd September 1956. However as BPEs have been issued under the old regulations, and as such certificates are valid for a period of three months, they are in circulation as old style BPEs along with the new style BPEs.

7. BPEs. under the 6th August regulations were paid to exporters only in Rupiahs and sold by them to buyers needing these BPEs for imports or social transfer or for payment of passages, travel and hotel expenses in foreign countries, in Rupiahs. The buyers making use of these old BPEs had to pay the Rupiah counter value of the original BPEs value to the bank concerned to obtain foreign exchange. For example :—

If an exporter has exported goods worth 1,000 Dutch guilders FOB, he received from the bank concerned Rps. 3,000 (1 Dutch guilder = Rps. 3 official rate plus if the inducement for the export product is 10 per cent, a BPE worth 100 Dutch guilders expressed in Rupiahs as Rps. 300. This BPE he can trade in open market for a higher price depending on the BPE rates for old style (usually 1·5 to 1 or Rp. 4·50).

The exporter under the old style BPE thus receives a total of Rp. 3450. The buyer when using this for import, transfer etc., has to pay about Rp. 450 (depending on the market rate for BPE) to the seller plus the nominal value of Rp. 300 to the Bank to obtain foreign exchange. Thus the importer of goods with the old style BPE worth Rp. 300 will have to spend Rp. 750. In addition he will have to pay the new import surcharges (TPI) leviable on the goods under different categeries or the exchange levy (TPT) of 66 2/3 per cent if the BPE is used for social transfer or payment of passage, etc.

8. The new style BPE as from 3rd September, is quoted exclusively in foreign exchange and not in Rupiahs. Thus if an exporter has exported goods (inducement 10 per cent) worth 1,000 Dutch guilders, he receives Rp. 3,000 plus a BPE of 100 guilders nominal value. The market rates for these BPEs are higher as they are considered foreign exchange and the buyers of the documents do not have to pay the Rupiah counter values to the banks. The market rate usually varies from 2 to 2·5 to 1. Therefore the seller of 100 guilders worth of BPE (official rate Rp. 300) will get from the buyer between Rp. 600 to Rp. 750 depending on the prevailing quotation for the day. The buyer using the BPE will, however, have to pay the usual import levy (TPI) or exchange levy (TPT).

Market quotations for the new style BPE on 4th October were Rp. 1·90 for ready and/or October/November delivery and 1·925 for November/December.

9. B.P.Es. issued after the 1st November 1956 will be valid for a period of four months. The period of validity of B.P.Es. now in circulation (old style and new style) is extended upto 28th February, 1957. In other words two types of B.P.Es. will be in circulation up to that period.

10. The usual import procedure is to be followed by importers using B.P.Es. for imports.
